

DEMO SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT & SERVICES AGREEMENT

Document Type: Commercial Technology Agreement Version: Demo 1.0

This sample agreement is fictional and is provided solely for testing an AI legal document intelligence system. It is not legal advice and should not be relied upon as an actual contract.

1. PARTIES

This Software Development & Services Agreement (the "Agreement") is entered into as of 10 September 2026 (the "Effective Date") by and between Northstar Analytics Pvt. Ltd., having its principal office at 21 Park Street, Kolkata, West Bengal, India ("Client"), and BlueRiver Technologies, having its principal office at 88 Salt Lake Sector V, Kolkata, West Bengal, India ("Service Provider").

2. SCOPE OF SERVICES

The Service Provider shall design, develop, test, and deploy a web-based document intelligence platform for the Client. The platform may include document ingestion, OCR, semantic search, retrieval-augmented generation (RAG), large language model (LLM) processing, document classification, clause extraction, and automated summaries. Detailed milestones shall be described in a mutually approved project plan.

3. DELIVERABLES

The Service Provider shall deliver: (a) source code for the agreed application components; (b) deployment documentation; (c) basic API documentation; (d) a testing report; and (e) administrator/user documentation. Any third-party software, model, API, or hosted service remains subject to its applicable license and terms.

4. FEES AND PAYMENT

The total project fee is INR 2,40,000, exclusive of applicable taxes. Payment shall be made in three stages: 30% upon commencement, 40% upon delivery of the beta version, and 30% upon final acceptance. Invoices are payable within 15 days of receipt.

5. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party shall protect non-public business, technical, financial, and customer information received from the other party and shall use such information only for purposes of performing or receiving services under this Agreement. Confidentiality obligations shall continue for three (3) years after termination, except for information that becomes public without breach or is lawfully obtained from another source.

6. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Upon receipt of all amounts due, Client shall own the original custom application code and project-specific documentation created specifically for Client under this Agreement. The Service Provider retains ownership of its pre-existing tools, libraries, reusable frameworks, know-how, templates, and generic components. Third-party components remain owned by their respective licensors.

7. DATA PROTECTION

The parties shall use reasonable technical and organizational measures to protect personal or confidential data processed in connection with the services. The Service Provider shall not intentionally sell Client data or use Client confidential documents to train a general-purpose model without the Client's prior written authorization.

8. AI-SPECIFIC TERMS

AI-generated summaries, classifications, extracted clauses, and recommendations may contain errors or omissions. The system is intended to assist human review and shall not be treated as a substitute for professional legal judgment. The Service Provider shall make reasonable efforts to provide source-document references or retrieved passages where technically supported.

9. WARRANTIES AND ACCEPTANCE

The Service Provider warrants that it will perform the services with reasonable skill and care. Client shall have 10 business days after delivery of a milestone to report material defects against the agreed specifications. The Service Provider shall use reasonable efforts to correct verified defects within a reasonable period.

10. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

To the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, neither party shall be liable for indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising from this Agreement. Except for liability arising from fraud, willful misconduct, confidentiality breaches, or infringement of intellectual property rights, each party’s aggregate liability shall not exceed the total fees paid or payable under this Agreement.

11. TERMINATION

Either party may terminate this Agreement for a material breach if the breach is not cured within 15 days after written notice. Either party may also terminate for convenience upon 30 days’ written notice, subject to payment for completed and accepted work and approved non-cancellable expenses.

12. GOVERNING LAW AND DISPUTES

This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of India. The parties shall first attempt to resolve disputes through good-faith negotiation. If unresolved within 30 days, the dispute shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts located in Kolkata, West Bengal.

13. NOTICES

Formal notices shall be sent in writing to the addresses stated above or to another address notified in writing by a party. Email may be used for routine project communications but shall not replace formal notice where this Agreement requires written notice.

14. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

This Agreement and its approved project plan constitute the entire agreement between the parties concerning the services and supersede prior discussions on the same subject. Any amendment must be in writing and signed or otherwise expressly approved by authorized representatives of both parties.
